Parents Weekend....

On October 31, 1986, students, parents, family and friends all joined together to celebrate Parents Weekend with many Halloween Festivities. With apple cider and hot chocolate available, all were able to cheer on the football team as they played against UMass Boston. Hay rides around campus brought a chatter to many teeth and humorous caricatures by Neil Portnoy were souvenirs of a fabulous weekend. The cafeteria suddenly became the scene of a Goulish Goulash and the Butlers Ball filled everyone in on actually "Who Done it."

Trick or Treat?

Can

It was a blustery day in early November when the 1987 Yearbook sponsored the third Lip Sync competition. Once again, the turnout was excellent as students were treated to a wide range of musical groups throughout the show.

Master of Ceremonies, Edward Murray, mingled with the stars of popular music as Sue Costello, Drew O'Conner and Conor Maguire awarded scores to all the contestants.

First place was captured by the lovely Pointer Sisters-Bill Foxx, Steve Raso and Jeff Stewart, who had the audience dancing in the aisles to "I'm So Excited." Second place went to the inspirational Irish rockers U2 headed by Bono look-alike Kevin Fontaine. The third place prize was awarded to Deb Paquette, Monica Dolan, Norma Waitekus, Kathy Gaucher, Sandy McClellan, Yvette Gosselin, Marlena Maggio and Barbara Bennett, who brought the spirit of the 1950's to life with their rendition of "Beauty School Dropout."

This Be MTV?!

Rounding out the evening's entertainment was a diverse mixture of groups ranging from the hard driving rock of the Violent Femmes and The Police, through a pop standard from Huey Lewis and The News to the opposite end of the spectrum with dance numbers from Bananarama and The Bangles. All in all, the event was a huge success raising over eight hundred dollars for the Yearbook and leaving a song on everyone's lips . . . so to speak.

Jay Leno!

On November 24, Assumption was visited by one of T.V.'s hottest comics. Jay Leno came to give a hilarious performance between guest appearances on "Late Night With David Letterman" and "The Tonight Show". More than 700 students and guests were treated to a rousing two hours packed with laughs and crazy antics in Laska gymnasium. Leno, swapping jokes with the audience, was in rare form throughout the night and lived up to his impressive reputation. Thanks to the efforts of Melanie Demarais and the Student Government Association, Assumption was fortunate enough to "CATCH A RISING STAR."

CLUB 21

In November the pub was re-established as Club 21. Due to the effort of dedicated drinkers like Vin Kennally, Chuck Hennigar, Dennis Barquinero and Penny Graves all those of legal drinking age had a place to gather and laugh at those outside the barrier.

Strange things happen

when you've been studying too long . . .

"The NON-Academic Experience" by Gina Terrasi

Everyone has heard it said that most of what you learn in college is outside of the classroom. I myself have found this to be quite evident. In my two years here at Assumption, I have learned far more than I would have ever imagined. Of course, I am referring to the non-academic environment. The following is my personal list of the top ten learning experiences of college life.

1. Never, out of the goodness of your heart, offer to type someone else's term paper. It's like feeding a stray cat milk.
2. Never underestimate the thinness of the walls in the dorms when you are cutting up your next door neighbors.
3. Never enter the salad bar on the side opposite the lettuce.
4. The embarassment of being caught sneaking into a dance on the elevator is not worth the $1.00.
5. Always put on the hand dryers in the bathroom when attending to your personal business.
6. Always notice the position of the feet in the bathroom stalls before entering.
7. There are at least 100 ways to conceal a toaster oven.
8. Double occupancy +1 = 20.
9. The cheapest way to make a long distance call is to run when the operator calls back for the money.
10. On any campus, in any country, at any time, somewhere, somehow someone will be found cooking macaroni and cheese.

It will all pay off!!

It just has to!!!

Goals are dreams and wishes
that are not easily reached.
You have to work hard to obtain them,
never knowing when or where
you will reach your goal.

But keep trying!
Do not give up hope.
And most of all . . .
never stop
believing in yourself.

For within you
there is someone special . . .

someone wonderful
and successful.
No matter what you achieve,
as long as you want it
and it makes you
happy,

you are a success.

ASSUMPTION
COLLEGE

Go placidly amid the noise & haste, & remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even dull & ignorant; they too have their story. • Avoid loud & aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater & lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. • Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. • Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. • Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself • You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. • therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. • With all its sham drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy. • •

A disappointing season with just one victory nonetheless produced many individual standouts. Senior punter Bob Wilson, senior middle linebacker Ken Ketchum, and sophomore wide receiver Don Kinney were accoreded ALL America honors by the National Collegiate Football Association. All conference honors went to senior center David McManus, senior safety Chris Welburn.

Don Kinney was the statistical leader as wide receiver with 34 catches for 614 yards. Bob Wilson replaced All American Jake Fahey as the teams punter with a 39 yard average. Junior running back Kevin O'Brien led the team in scoring while Rick Dandini was the top rusher with 556 yards on the season.

The 1986-1987 season was the second season for head coach Jack Renkens. Renkens, who's working on bringing the Hounds to the top of the Northeast 8 (Soon to be NE 10), brought the Hounds to a fifth place finish in the conference with a 12-16 overall record. Junior Jim Best was "Conference Player of the Year" as he led the region in scoring and rebounding.

Field Hockey

The field hockey team wrapped another successful season by qualifying to play in the Massachusetts State Tournament for the second consecutive year. The team's final overall record was nine wins and seven losses. At the tournament, Freshman Carina Dolcino scored an impressive team-high 15 goals. Both she and Junior MVP Ellen Tremper were chosen to continue in post-season play at the National All-Star Tournament in Virginia.

Despite the strength which still exists in the team with such players as captains Amy Romano and Ellen Tremper, the five graduating seniors will be missed.

Tri-captains Sue Scanlon, Michelle Loranger and Maureen Flanagan and seniors Karen Glispin and Kim Miller have seen an impressive turnaround since their freshman and sophomore years, during which only 3 games per season were won. Coach Joyce LaBonte suffered through those beginning years with these five women, and their efforts have paid off.

Soccer

Improvement was the key in the Hounds fall soccer season behind senior co-captains Bryan Hartnett and Glenn Rattell. Late in the season the Hounds beat one of New England's top ten teams, St. Anselm, 1-0, in St. A's only loss of the season.

Coach Bill Mahoney praised senior Pete Frankudakis who allowed only 30 goals in 16 games as well as leading scorer, sophomore Rohan Harrison with 7 goals and 7 assists. Three of the Hounds' losses occured in overtime and they tied up the season 4-10-2. There are high hopes for the '87 team which will be lead by agressive new team captain, sophomore Dominic Rawson.

Tennis

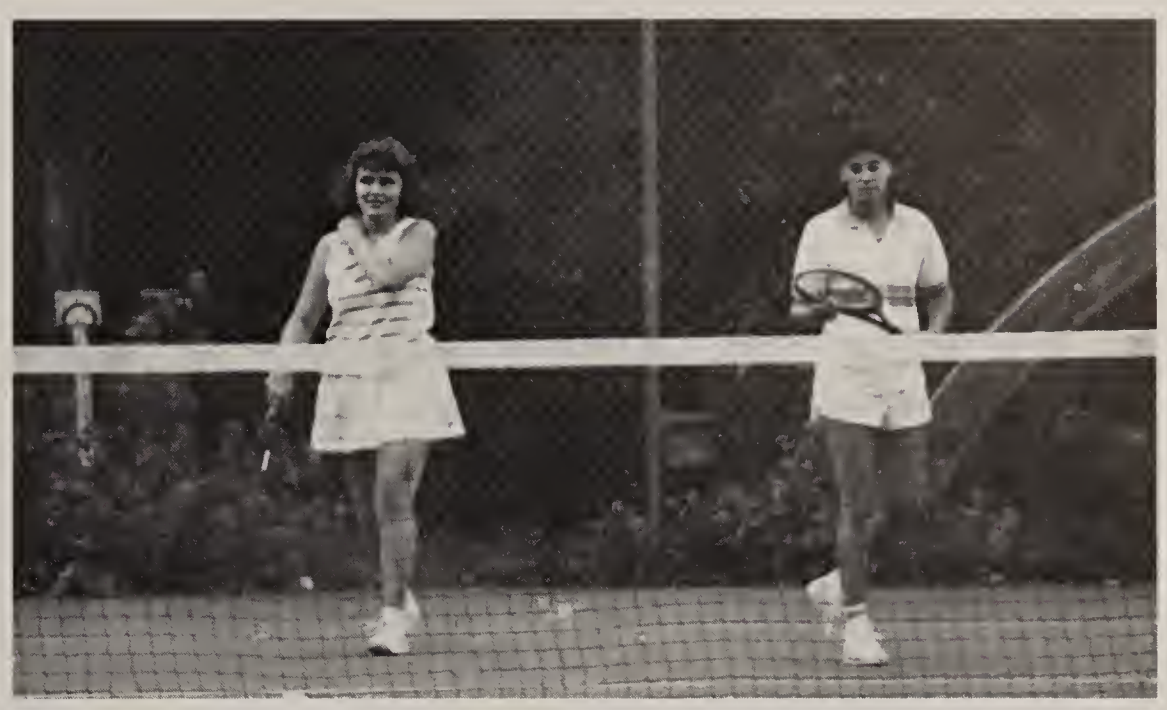

The woman's varsity tennis team proved to possess a driving spirit throughout the fall season.

The team's members included seniors; Kara Reilly (captain), Karen Brossi, Monica Brynn and Karen Bitar, junior Caroline Kelly, and freshmen; Joanne Flanagan, Gina Perez and Carrie Kosack. All contributed to the successful matches during the season. The highlight of the season came when the team made it into the semi-finals of two tournaments; the Northeast and MAIAW invitational conferences.

Womens Basketball

The Lady Hounds experienced their best league record in the 1986-1987 season. The Lady Hoopsters finished the season with a 7-7 conference record and an overall record of 9-16. The Lady Hounds were led by Juniors Barbie Barrett (who will reach the 1,000 point mark early in the 1987-1988 season), Ann McInerney, who led the conference in rebounding and field goal percentage. Senior Monica Dolan led the team in assists and steals as Seniors Yvette Gosselin and Debbie Paquette played a solid game throughout the year.

The incredible careers of Tom Schofield and Steve Tucci came to an end as did the Hounds'' three-year tournament streak. Under the first-year coach Bill Bowes, the Hounds struggled home at 9-13-1. Individually, however, Schofield became the first player in Division II-III history to reach the 200-point level as a defenseman, while breaking 11 individual records. He ws named all-ECAC for the fourth straight year, and all-New England for the second time. Tucci became the all-time leading goal-scorer with 93 goals . . . he finished as the team's Most Valuable Player and perhaps its most underrated super star ever. Tucci won the Berthiaume Award for ''above and beyond'' and Schofield was cited as the premier male senior student-athlete, the Desautels Award.

The statistics of junior shortstop Barbie Barrett would make any statistical freak take notice. The two-time Northeast-8 Conference player of the year led the Lady Hounds to a 23-19 mark and two tournament berths . . . the Hounds lost in the final of the MAIAW and in the semifinal of the ECAC tournaments. Barrett pounded away at a .500 pace (73 hits in 146 at bats) with 45 runs, 44 RBI, 31 stolen bases, and 98 total bases.

Three players reached the 100 mark in hits including senior Monica Dolan, Barrett, and Ellen Tremper. And seven members of the team helped dominate the conference all-stars including first teamers Ann Gibbons, Kelly Johnson, Barrett, Tremper, and Shonda Becker.

Led by Jack Lepore, the Hounds second all-America in two years, the team finished 18-14 including 11 straight wins. Lepore led the homor happy Hounds with .454, 6 homers, and 31 RBI, not to mention his record 54 hits, while post-graduate Ray Fagnant (.342, 8, 35), junior Peter Rolfe (.435, 4, 23), and junior Peter Carey (.360, 5, 26) contributed heavily to the top hitting team (.337) in New England. Lepore was named All-Conference, All-District, All-New England, and all-America, while Fagnant and Rolfe were accorded All-District, All-New England, and All-Conference honors. Eight different players help the Hounds dominate the All-Conference team.

The Lights !! . .

The Theater Workshop, nestled under the cafeteria, is the place the cameras roll and the stars of the future are born. Many hours of practice for the actors, directors and producers of Assumption happen here. With the guidance of Dr. Plasse and Technical Assistants, Karen Bitar, Tim Curtin, Susan Hagopian, Andy Loiselle and Vicki McCormack, skits and TV productions of high quality were produced. About The Play

"You Can't Take It With You" is a comedy of errors that takes place in the thirties, When family life was the center of existence. The extended Sycamore family, in Manhatten, is extremely eccentric, except for one daughter, the "employed" one, who induces mayhem when she brings her fiance's staid parents home to meet her family. Their reaction and the conflict that follows produces a comical yet perhaps realistic view of life in the 1930's.

Bring Your Beer

THANK YOU

There are times in every life
when we feel hurt or alone . . .
But I believe that these times
when we feel lost
and all around us seems to be falling apart
are really bridges of growth.
We struggle and try to recapture
the security of what was,
but almost in spite of ourselves,
we emerge on the other side
with a new understanding
a new awareness,
a new strength.
It is almost as though
we must go through the pain
and the struggle
in order to grow
and reach new heights.

You've made us proud, Jay! We love you.
Mom and Dad. Pat, Kate and Tom

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to the staff at Assumption College for their contribution to Giordana's future. Thank you for inspiring her and the Class of 1987 to reach their ultimate endeavors. We are sure she will always hold the pleasant memories dear to her.

The Fioravanti Family

Shortly before the time that the angel Gabriel appeared before the Virgin Mary to say to her that she would soon bear a son to be named Jesus, the Son of the Most High, an angel appeared to Elizabeth, wife of Zachary, who was without child, and announced that she too would bear a son, to be named John, who would be filled with the Holy Spirit and would be great before the Lord. He was to become the baptizer, to bring many back to the Lord their God and to prepare for the Lord a perfect people.

Mary visited Elizabeth who, when she heard the greeting of Mary, found that the babe in her womb leapt, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and cried out with a loug voice, saying, "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb! And how have I deserved that the mother of my Lord should come to me?"

Elizabeth's time was fulfilled, and she brought forth a son who was named John. And the child grew and became strong in spirit and was called the Prophet of the Most High. He was to go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give to his people knowledge of salvation through forgiveness of their sins because of the loving-kindness of our God.

Luke, Chap. 1, Verses 5-80.

We take this occasion to honor our dearest daughter, Elizabeth Nolan, on the occasion of her graduation at Assumption College. May she also be filled with the Holy Spirit in all that she undertakes.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Nolan

Dearest Lori,

I have love, pride and a heart full of wonderful dreams for your future. Your Dad is walking along beside you today and always, Honey. Love Mom

Congratulations Joe Beatrice, we are proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad, Barbara, Maria, Michael, Yvonne, Robert, Beth, Michael C., Jenna and Megan.
